

Track II Network of ASEAN Defence and Security Institutions (NADI)

Meeting on “Conflicts Affecting the Region, and the ADMM/ADMM-Plus’ Role in Conflict Prevention and Management”

Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel Singapore, 4 – 7 November 2024

PROGRAMME

Monday, 4 November 2024

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
18:30 – 20:30	Welcome Dinner Venue: Food Capital Restaurant, Level 1 Dress Code: Smart Casual

Day 1 – Tuesday, 5 November 2024

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
08:30 – 09:00	Registration Venue: Riverfront Ballroom, Level 2 Dress Code: Formal / Lounge Suit All guests to be seated by 8:50am
09:00 – 09:10	Opening Remarks by the NADI Meeting Chairman Ambassador Ong Keng Yong Executive Deputy Chairman, RSIS, and Chairman, NADI Meeting
09:10 – 09:45	Keynote Speech Ms Elizabeth Tan Director (ASEAN) Defence Policy Office Defence Policy Group Ministry of Defence, Singapore Question and Answer (10 minutes) Adoption of Agenda (10 minutes)
09:45 – 10:00	Coffee / Tea Break
10:00 – 10:15	Group Photograph-taking

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
10:15 – 12:00	Presentation Session I: Conflicts Affecting the Region – Scenarios NADI Members will present on 1-2 potential conflicts that could arise in or impact the region, and how such conflicts would realistically play out. Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are some potential causes of the conflicts that could affect our region? (e.g., maritime disputes; water, food and energy security disputes; differences in religious or ideological values; major power rivalry) 2. How would such a conflict realistically play out in our region? (e.g., hybrid conflicts; maritime disputes leading to disrupted sea lines of communications; disruption of critical infrastructure and resources; cyber and information campaigns) 3. What would be the implications of the conflict? Presenters (10 minutes each): Brunei Darussalam Cambodia Indonesia (CSSRD TNI) Lao PDR Malaysia (MiDAS) Philippines (NDCP) Discussion / Exchange of Views (45 minutes)
12:00 – 13:30	Lunch Break Venue: Foyer, Riverfront Ballroom
13:30 – 14:40	Presentation Session II: Conflicts Affecting the Region – Prevention and Management NADI Members will present on initiatives and mechanisms that the ADMM/ADMM-Plus can utilise to prevent conflicts or manage the consequences when conflicts occur. AMS may wish to zoom into 1-2 particular types of conflict, to guide the formulation of strategies. Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What are ASEAN's common interests? 2. What can the ADMM/ADMM-Plus do now to encourage de-escalation and prevent the conflict from happening? 3. What existing ADMM/ADMM-Plus initiatives or mechanisms could we use to minimise potential consequences, should the conflict happen? 4. What other new mechanisms could the ADMM/ADMM-Plus explore to reduce risks and mitigate consequences?

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
	Presenters (10 minutes each): Indonesia (RIDU) Malaysia (NDUM) Myanmar Philippines (AFP-OSSSM) Singapore Thailand Vietnam
14:40 – 15:00	Coffee / Tea Break
15:00 – 15:50	Discussion / Exchange of Views (50 minutes)
15:50 – 16:00	Other Matters
16:00 – 18:00	Adjournment of Meeting Free Time
18:30 – 20:30	Official Dinner Venue: Waterfront 3 (Level 2) Dress Code: Smart Casual

Day 2 – Wednesday, 6 November 2024

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
08:30 – 10:00	Consideration of Chairman’s Report
10:00 – 10:15	Coffee Break
10:15 – 11:45	Consideration of Chairman’s Report (Cont’d)
11:45 – 11:50	Closing Remarks by the NADI Workshop Chairman
11:50 – 12:10	Presentation of Tokens of Appreciation
12:10 – 13:30	Lunch Venue: Foyer, Riverfront Ballroom
14:00 – 17:00	Social Visit: Gardens by the Bay *Please gather at the Hotel Lobby by 14:00 for bus transfer for social visit Dress Code: Casual
17:00	Transfer Back to Hotel Free and Easy / Departure of Delegates

Day 3 – Thursday, 7 November 2024

Time (Singapore/GMT+8)	Programme
All Day	Departure of Delegates